Designed to connect people in financial need to their Novartis medications NOW

Patient Assistance NOW is a website designed for patients to find financial assistance programs for their Novartis medications and get back to what's truly important in their lives.

Help patients afford their Novartis medications NOW

At Novartis, our mission is to discover new ways to improve and extend people's lives. To us, this is more than just researching and developing innovative medicines. It also means ensuring that people have access to their Novartis medications. There are many resources in place that help improve access and can help individuals with limited or no prescription coverage. One of those resources is Patient Assistance NOW.

Patient Assistance NOW helps patients find programs that may provide savings or resources, as well as access to their Novartis prescription medications.

Find potential programs or resources NOW in 3 easy steps

It's fast and easy for patients to find out if they are eligible for one of the many financial assistance programs available:

- 1. Choose a medication
- 2. Answer a few questions about yourself

Still have questions? Here are the most frequently asked questions about Patient Assistance NOW.

How can Patient Assistance NOW help patients?

Patient Assistance NOW is a website that helps patients find programs that may provide savings or resources, as well as access to their Novartis prescription medications. The website is easy to navigate; patients just answer a few questions to find out what programs they qualify for.

How many different medications can patients search for in the Patient Assistance NOW program?

There are more than 60 different medications currently available, which includes many therapeutic areas, such as cardio metabolic, immunology and dermatology, neuroscience, oncology, ophthalmology, and much more.

Are patients eligible for financial assistance if they have private insurance?

Novartis has services in place that can help guide patients through the reimbursement process for certain Novartis oncology and pharma-specialty products. These programs offer valuable patient support services, and some may provide help if patients cannot afford their out-of-pocket co-pay costs.

In addition, financial assistance may be available from independent charitable foundations for qualified patients with certain diseases who are unable to afford their co-pay costs.
